

The gingerbread man

Write the characters name.

the fox - the cow - the old man - the gingerbread man - the horse - the old woman -
the hen

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

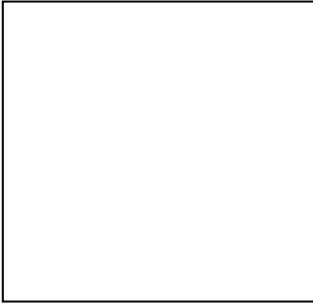

.....

.....

The gingerbread man

Put and glue the pictures in order. Then associate the corresponding sentence to the picture.

Empty rectangular box for a sentence.

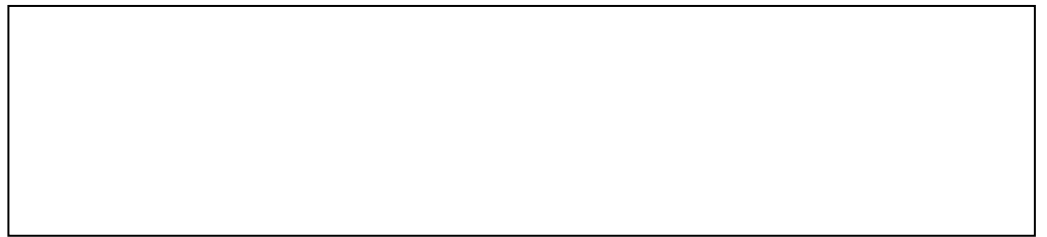

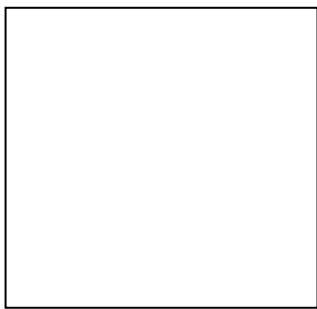

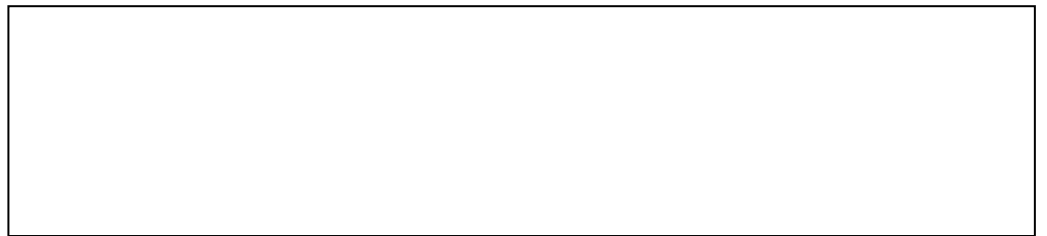

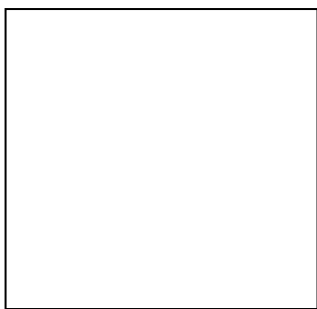

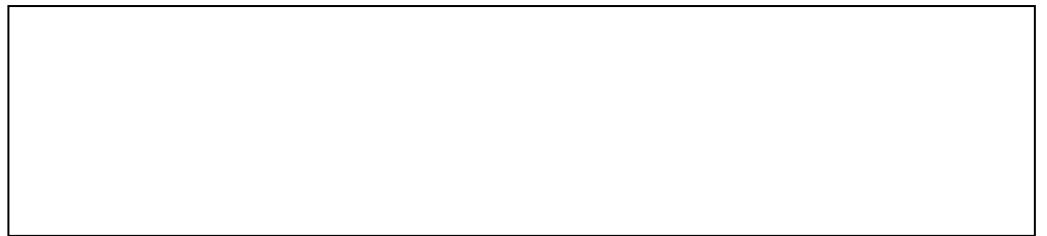

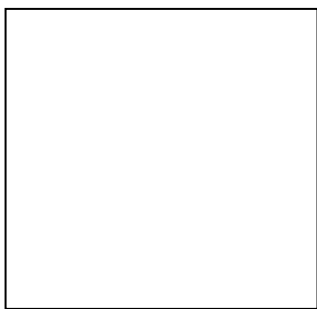

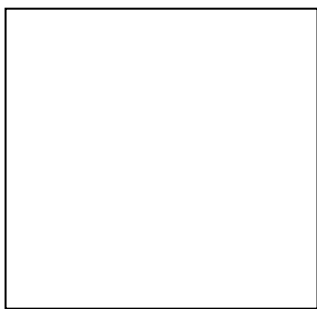

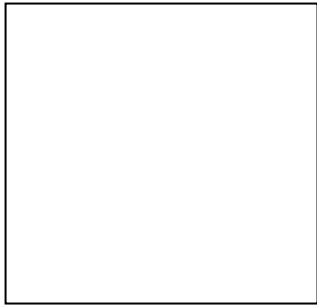

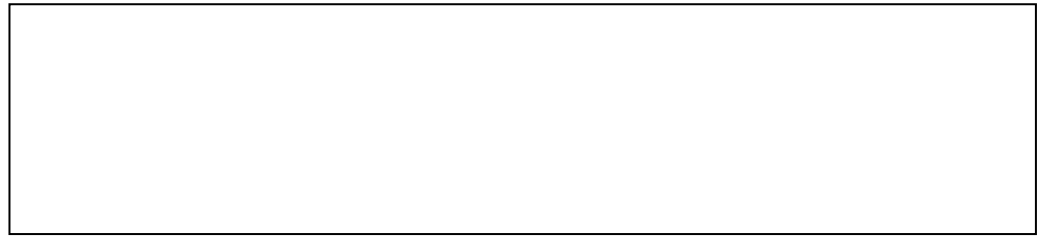

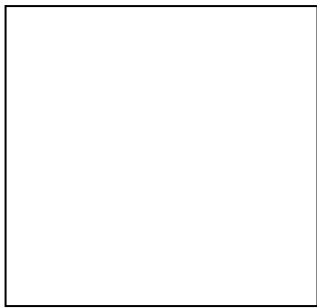

Empty rectangular box for a sentence.

Empty rectangular box for a sentence.

Empty rectangular box for a sentence.

The gingerbread man

Circle the correct answer.

What does the old woman make? A. A cake  B. The Gingerbread Man  C. Cupcakes  The Speech Bubble	What does the Gingerbread Man do after he is done baking? A. Runs away  B. Takes a nap  C. Hugs the old woman  The Speech Bubble
What does the fox say he will help the Gingerbread Man cross? A. The road  B. The river  C. A line _____ The Speech Bubble	What can the Gingerbread Man not do? A. Get wet  B. Go to sleep  C. Eat a cupcake  The Speech Bubble

Answer to the questions.

★ What is the sentence that the gingerbread man repeats all the time?

.....

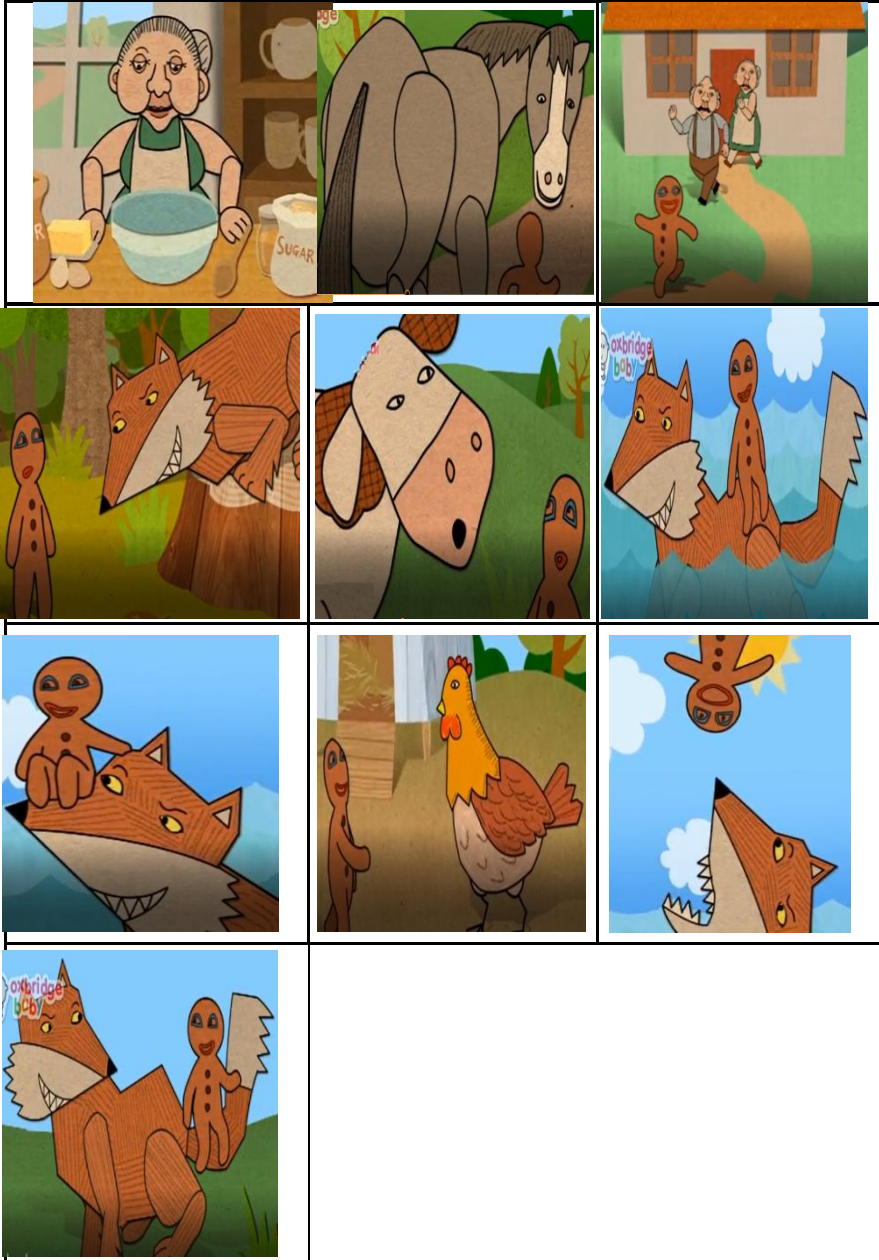

★ Does the horse eat the gingerbread man?

★ Does the gingerbread man know how to swim?

★ Who does eat the gingerbread man at the end?

English

name :.

One day, the old woman decided to make a boy out of gingerbread.

The gingerbread met a horse. "You look tasty; I think I would like to eat you."

The old woman and man ran after him as quickly as they could, but he was too fast for them.

The gingerbread man met a chicken. "You look fine enough to eat for dinner."

The gingerbread man met a cow. "You look very fine, fine enough to eat."

"You don't even look that tasty." said the fox "No young man I don't want to eat you at all!"

You are too heavy, jump onto my back.

The fox tilt his head back and toast the gingerbread man in the air.

I help you across the river, jump onto my tail.

You are too heavy for my back, jump onto my nose.