

Beauty Lily.

Once upon a time, a Princess called Lily. She was very beautiful. Her parents were crazy about her.

Her father, the king, offers her all what she wants. Her mother, the queen reads her stories every evening.

One day, Lily became as old enough to get married. The king invited the most beautiful, the richest, the kindest, the most famous princes.

"Choose one of them" said the King.

" Not this one, not this one " always Said Lily.

"All of them are charming" said the Queen "Look carefully at them!"

But none of the princes like Lily. They were too tall, too small, too weak, .....etc.

The king insisted: "One of them will make a great husband! He will give you all what you need, like me!"

Lily answered : " No, it's not like that that I will choose my husband!"

"So, HOW? " asked the King. But Lily didn't answer.

One night, Lily disappeared. Everybody looked after her in the castle but she wasn't there.

The king and the Queen had a quarrel : " It's your fault" says the queen. " She didn't want to get married"

" You are responsible " says the king, " You spoiled her"

The housekeeper went outside to look after Lily and she found her next to a pond. She looked carefully and she saw Lily catching frogs, kissing them and saying: it's not this one....

The housekeeper shouted : "Lily! What are you doing?" . "But I'm looking for a husband. For each princess there is one toad. My kisses will transform it into a Prince".

The housekeeper ran to tell the King and the Queen what Lily was doing.

"Our daughter is crazy... what can we do?" "Let her doing it, it will pass"

Lily caught a lot of toads but didn't find her prince. She was desperate and began to cry. Her tears fell in the pond where a big toad was sleeping. He woke up and went out of the water. Lily caught it and kissed it and..... Became a frog!!!!

" you are so beautiful" said the toad

"You are my kind" answered Lily.

And they lived happy through their long life.....
