Where is Rodolphe ?

It's the day before Christmas and Tom is very impatient. To make him hold on (to wait), his mother gives him a book in the shape of a reindeer with a little bell.

Tom is very happy! He jumps for joy! Dring Dring! " Your name is RODOLPHE" says Tom to the reindeer .He gives a kiss on the red nose.

Tom plays with the reindeer. He introduces the reindeer to MINOU, the cat . DRING DRING. Then they play in the bedroom: DRING DRING, Then they go in the garden DRING DRING…

At the end of the day Tom's mother is tired! "Stop with this noise" says she. "It's not me, It's Rodolphe" says Tom. DRING DRING.

In the evening Tom goes to bed. Good night Mum, DRING DRING. Tom falls asleep but in the night, he was deeply asleep when he heard DRING DRING. He wakes up and look after Rodolphe : Rodolphe has disappeared! His mother wakes up, comes into his bedroom and finds him in tears: Rodolphe is not there, he has disappeared….

His mother tries to console him: We will look after him tomorrow…. But outside they heard: DRIN DRING…

OOOO, says Tom, HE is outside. I must go out and take him back.

No, says his mother, it's too late, too cold. If can go outside, he can come back. And now, go in your bed and sleep.

Tom falls asleep and wakes up early in the morning to go looking after Rodolphe. He jumps out of his bed… And finds Rodolphe on the ground. The book is wet! Tom runs in the living-room and SURPRISE there are a lot of presents under the Christmas tree. There is also a letter.

" Thank you for lending your reindeer to me, Tom. I needed him to make my round and give all the presents. Merry Christmas". Santa Claus.

Yes! Rodolphe was really outside but it was to help the Father Christmas. So, you too, take care about your Rodolphe. But if he disappears during the night of Christmas, don't worry, you know where he is….
